SUNCOOK COUPLE ELOPE TO CANADA

Police Seek Harold Gooch,
Married, and 18-Year-Old
Louisa Mortiminy.

Suncook, Oct. 30—Word has been received by the local police from Canadian officers that the latter are on the track of Harold Gooch and Louisa Mortiminy, both of this place, who are said to have eloped Monday night.

Gooch is a married man and has two children. His wife and family are at the church street home, where Sirs. Gooch is nearly prostrated by the recent disappearance of her husband. Gooch is about 30 years of age.

His companion Miss Mortiminy Altonian, is about 18.

Both are in the employ of Edward J. Fowler, Gooch, at the Fowler Bros. grain mill, and the girl in the Fowler household. She had been with Mrs. Fowler for three years, and Gooch had been employed at the mill three weeks.

Monday night the couple were seen to board a Concord bound electric car. They were seen together in Concord until 10:45 when it is known that they boarded the Montreal express. The local police were informed of the facts, and they got in immediate communication with Canadian authorities, who have been tracing the couple since Tuesday.

Gooch met Miss Mortiminy after he started work at the mill. It was his custom to carry water to the workmen, and in that way she met Gooch. They were seen together often in the past month.

WITHDRAWS HIS OFFER

Hon. Woodbury Langdon Resents the Indifference of the City Council and Will Not Contribute His $10,000

Hon. Woodbury Langdon, who has for years freely bestowed gifts of money to the city, especially that of money for the beautifying of the playground and surroundings, withdrew his latest offer and the city loses the $10,000 for the work that Mr. Langdon was so interested in.

For their slap at this generous gentleman, the city council alone must answer—what do the mothers and fathers of children who live nearly the greater part of the summer in this beautiful spot, made beautiful by Mr. Langdon think of certain members of the council who are responsible for the act of Thursday night?

Today this matter was discussed in every part of the city and one prominent man recommended a movement for the citizens to handle this matter and take it out of the hands of the city council and try and raise the necessary amount to meet Mr. Langdon's offer by public subscription. Asking every man, woman and child in the city to devote a little—who could refuse? One in a thousand. This party in question is aware that it would take longer but believes that a committee of citizens should consider this and then go to Mr. Langdon who, he believes, would let the kind offer stand under these conditions. All that will be necessary in the future, with the money ready, would be to get permission from the city government to permit the pond work. He says there are plenty of good men who would oversee the work.

We are to have a repetition of the row that caused the loss of a public library valued at $30,000 as a gift from the late J. Albert Walker?

The resolution thanking Mr. Langdon was introduced on Thursday night by Counsellor Pinkham who had a second resolution calling for the appropriation of $5,000 to meet that of Mr. Langdon, which never saw daylight as the first one offered by Mr. Pinkham was tabled on motion of counsellor Adams. Mr. Pinkham then decided not to present the other as Counsellor Adams and Bennett spoke against the appropriation of any money by the city at that time.

The communication received from Mr. Langdon today is the following:

Portsmouth, N. H.,
October 31, 1913.

D. W. Badger Esq.,
Mayor of Portsmouth.

Dear Sir:

As the City Council seems to be indifferent to an improvement that Portsmouth citizens have been clamoring for for years, to say nothing of making the playground a beauty spot of the city, I hereby withdraw my offer to you to contribute ten thousand dollars ($10,000), provided the City appropriate a like amount to clear out the upper South Pond, the condition of which is now a menace to the health of the people.

Yours truly,

(Signed) WOODBURY LANGDON

NURSES HAVE MERRY PARTY

Observe Hallowe'en in Merry Style at the Nurses' Home.

The first social event which was ever held in the new nurses' home, took place Thursday evening, the occasion being a Hallowe'en party. A ghost impersonated by Miss Louise Thistle greeted the guests at the front door, which had the sign "Follow the Rope" inscribed in conspicuous letters. Each guest had to follow the rope all around the side of the house to the cellar door, through the cellar, up the stairs, through the first flight to the second, where they were led to wander around and find their way out. The course was very dark, all lights being extinguished and suddenly ghosts and spirits would appear in the most obscure and illusive corners and stairways.

The guests arriving in the reception room were delighted to perceive the gaily costumed black and orange crepe paper with Jack-o'-lanterns, skeletons and black cats arranged in the most fascinating fashion. Not only were they delighted with their surroundings but were greatly surprised at the disguised company. The library, hall and staircase were decorated in the same scheme.

Each guest appeared in masquerade and presented a most bewitching assembly.

Among the masqueraders were noted the following: Miss Louise Thistle, an Italian girl; Miss Murian Dawson, an clown; Miss Viola Pruitt, an ghost; Miss Jocelyn McDonough, as a skeleton; Miss Anna Churchill, an Irish maid; Mrs. McDonough as a colored cook; Miss Monica Gray, an Indian maid; Mrs. William Gray, old fashioned lady; Miss Myrtle Seavey, Indian girl; Miss Laurin Brooks, Puritan maid; Miss Harriet Sullivan, as Colonial dame; Miss Katherine M. Small, as a fairy witch; and Miss Grace Pierson as a witch. Others were disguised as ghosts.

Even Dotty, the little brindle Boston terrier was disguised and deserved the prize for being the cutest of the masqueraders. Dotty was arrayed in a little white dress with black cats on it and was very fond of her new garment, too.

Every game and contest imaginable, which is pertinent to the season was indulged in and prizes were awarded to Mrs. John McDonough, Miss Jocelyn McDonough, and Miss Louise Thistle.

Refreshments of hot chocolate, sandwiches, cakes, crackers, peanuts, salted nuts, candies and fruits were served followed by music until a late hour.

The entire nursing corps were presented with the exception of the few who were on night duty.

A jolly good time was had by all present and each did her part to make things lively.

The committee in charge were the Misses Mildred Mahoney, Louise Thistle, and Grace Pierson.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Former Portsmouth People to Celebrate in California.

Carols have been received in this city announcing the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Larabee at Corona, California, on November 6th. Mr. and Mrs. Larabee were former residents of this city, where Mr. Larabee conducted a harness business on Congress street.

POLICE COURT.

Five for drunkenness appeared in the district court today and only one escaped. Alonso Lewis, W. D. Belau, and Willie Lewis each remitted $3.00 and costs of $5.75.

Michael Norton was fined $5.00 and costs of $5.75; and the fine of $2.00 and costs of $5.75 against Richard Farrell was suspended.

SUPERIOR COURT.

In the superior court this afternoon at two o'clock Judge Pike began his charge to the jury in the contested will of Francis Beckman of Seabrook. The closing arguments were made by Samuel Bell for the will and Attorney Perley for the contestants.

The court will take a recess until Monday after the verdict is reached.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

WILSON WAITS FOR MEXICO

Today was apple day at New Hampshire College. Nine granges and many individuals contributed to one of the finest exhibits of fruit ever seen here, and visitors came in from all parts of the state. More than 300 boxes of apples were shown, many boxed and barrelled, and there was a large exhibit of specimens showing insect pests, the damage they do, and the various fungicidal dusters.

President E. P. Fritchell welcomed the guests and there was a program morning and afternoon, college programs and practical orchardists reading papers and giving addresses.

Of the granges, Grange, of Milford, carried off first honors. Atkinson, Orange, of Atkinson, came second, and Lamprey River, of Newmarket, third. One fine box of apples was shown by the English Grange.

Around the walls were various spraying apparatus and a model beehive and appliances for box packing. It seems W. Pittsbury, one of the several hundred visitors, was enthusiastic in his praise of the displays. "There is a great future for southern New Hampshire," he declared, "in apple growing. A man with care can make $100 an acre from the fruit. Some will do better than this. The '50 grade fruit should be sent out in boxes only and the poorer in barrels. We have much to learn here about the industry but that it can be made profitable there is in my mind no doubt whatever. What we need is a growers' and packers' association, which will furnish labels that will give New Hampshire fruit a guarantee."

The fruit was arranged in long tables in the gymnasium and made a very attractive display. Luncheon was served the visitors in the hall at noon.

R. V. Mitchell, assistant professor of animal husbandry, announced that plans are now being made for a poultry day to be held here later in the year. At that time eggs and poultry will be exhibited.

The awards for individual fruit displays are:

Baldwins, 1st, F. B. Spaulding, 1st; 2d, David, Contocook; 3rd, H. T. Lapin, Newfields.

Russels, 1st, A. B. Sargent, North Danville; 2d, R. T. Gould, Contocook; 3d, A. L. Littlefield, Salem Depot.

R. L. Greenings, 1st, Andrew Langley, Durham; 2d, H. B. Tuttle, Nashua; 3d, A. E. J. Hurd, Dover.

Mackintosh Reds, 1st, Middlebrook Farm, Dover; 2d, R. T. Gould, Contocook; 3rd, J. P. Hayes, Madbury.

Hardwick, and His "Wicked" Grin; He's the Crimson's "Strong Man"

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 31—Hardwick, the strong man of Harvard, is one of the best fighting halfbacks in open field in the game. He's quick, and often keeps going when two or three men have tackled him.

Look at the tongue Mother! If swollen, or if your child be hallow, cross-reverber, breath bad, nostrils doesn't stink heartily, full of cold or has dry throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of California Syrup of Fig, then don't worry because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation pains, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you will have a well and playful child again. A thorough inside cleaning is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of California Syrup of Fig, which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the Buerke-Banquet Co. in Jersey City. Don't be fooled.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Made Up a Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur, to Bring Back Color, Gloss, Thickness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added will turn gray streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, straggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe at home though is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of mussa.

Americans Ready for Flight.

In view of Washington's previous representations on the subject, the next move of the American government is awaited here with no little interest. Many Americans have already packed their portable belongings preparatory to flight and are fearing the necessity of leaving their household effects to fate. They express little hope of finding anything left upon their possible return. The inadequate storage facilities are already overtaxed, and most of those who contemplate flight expect to leave their homes in charge of Mexican caretakers, as the only alternative.

The flight of Gen. Felix Diaz, while never arousing great interest in the capital, has practically ceased to be a subject of comment. His candidature was regarded by many Mexicans as a mere incident of the campaign, and was never taken seriously; his flight eliminates him from the calculation.

Pedroso Chambon, Manuel Calero and David de la Roche appear to have concealed their defeat in the face of obstacles alleged to have been found in the way of their adherents.

To the impartial observer it only remains for congress to be reconstituted and announces the election of the administration ticket—this to be followed by Huerta's proclamation renouncing the votes cast for him.

THREE VESSELS LOST, EIGHT MEN DROWNED

Casablanca, Morocco, Oct. 30—During a violent storm last night three vessels were driven ashore and wrecked on the Moroccan coast near this port, but their crews were saved with the exception of eight men drowned by the capsizing of a boat. The vessels were the Greek Mississauga, and the German Martin and the Spanish Lydia.

Another ship, the French Transatlantic Company's Cataville, had a narrow escape. She suffered considerable damage, but was able to proceed on her voyage to Nantes.

ANNUAL OBSERVANCE

Mexico City, Oct. 30.—With the election of General Victoriano Huerta and General Alvaro Obregon, almost a foreign conclusion, according to the official returns, the question as to what Washington proposes to do is keeping the foreign residents and the majority of Mexicans in a state of painful suspense. On the surface, at least, the administration is giving the consideration to the subject, seemingly taking the ground that its Mexi-

SHOULD ENFORCE ALL BOXING RULES

Many Referees Reluctant in Action Regarding Foul Tactics.

The knockout of Welsh, an English lightweight champion, by Milburn Bay for an Indianapolis boxer in the ring at Whinipeg the other night, caused to mind the reluctance of referees to enforce the rules against fouling, and while it allowed to continue will become a positive menace to the boxing game.

The blow that finished Welsh was a stiff one and landed in the groin, causing him much pain. Although he was unable to respond to the call of time, Freddie was awarded the decision on a foul, and the action of the referee was a proper one. The Englishman is regarded as one of the cleverest boxers in the ring today, and there are few who follow the game who regard Taylor as his superior.

But to get to the point, the matter of fouling has now reached the stage where it should be thrown out on broader grounds than the individual interests of any one boxer, referee or club.

Makes Fans Unfair.

One of the most famous features of the non-observance of the rules is that it liable to develop in ring hours a spirit of unfairness. One of the blackest marks that boxing has suffered of late was the boating of Gunboat Smith by the rowdy element of New York, after Gunboat had been rendered helpless by the foul blows of Carl Morris. To those who have participated in boxing bouts and love the game for its own sake, this action created a feeling of intense disgust, and for once the alleged reformers who are constantly objecting to what they do not understand had some ground for complaint.

There are some people so selfish that they are unable to see only their own side of the question. They have no sympathy for the boxer, regardless of how badly injured he may be if he deprives them of witnessing a few additional rounds. The referees and clubs are pandering to this element. But unless their referees are forced to more strict observance of the rules, the game will go to the death quickly.

Injured Allowed To Continue.

Referees have been known to allow boxers to continue after being fouled, and with but little rest and if this is not putting a premium on fouling it is dangerously near it. Unless a boxer is carried from the ring after being fainted the cry goes up of "quarter." In other games, as for example, baseball, the rules are followed out to the letter, and why is not the same thing true of the glove sport?

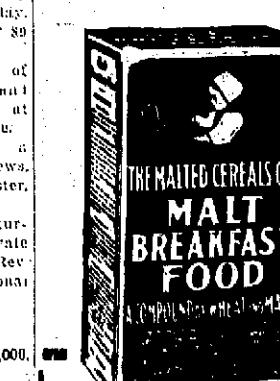

Common sense dictates that it is a thousand times more essential to observe the rules in boxing than any other sport. A low blow not only robs the recipient of his chance to win, but may injure him for life as well. On the face of it this is so apparent that it is almost foolish to mention the fact.

Let all the referees and club owners take a lesson from the knockout of the English lightweight champion and let the referee of this bout had the courage to act.

MEXICAN SITUATION AWAITING RESULT OF RECENT ELECTION

Washington, Oct. 30.—That the next step in the Mexican policy of the Administration has not been finally worked out and may not be announced for another week, was indicated today at the White House.

"It has been necessary," said Chairman Bacon of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, "that the European Nations should recognize the right of the United States to deal dilated here, the actual formalities of proclaiming the result may have some bearing on the situation, for while this Government has already refused to countenance the result, foreign governments have not taken any position and it is felt in many quarters that the United States should await formal action by the authorities in Mexico City before putting on record its reaction.

President Wilson is carefully considering suggestions from his adviser and it was said today that the plan might not be ready until next week's Cabinet meeting.

The United States battleship fleet bound for Mediterranean ports from Hampton Roads is steaming along in perfect weather, according to wireless reports from the Wyoming. The fleet was south of Cape Race last evening. One of the diversions for officers and men is a nightly exhibition of moving pictures on the quarterdeck.

With the situation. Now that we have that recognition it will take a little time for the President to work out the problem."

The possibility that within the next few days a definite announcement will be made by the Huerta Government of the result of the election last Sunday is having the effect of postponing action by the United States. While the election has been re-

CANAL LOCKS SAFE FROM FIRE OF ENEMY'S FLEET

Washington, Oct. 30.—Secret tests recently made by the third division of the Atlantic battleship fleet, under command of Rear Admiral Usher, are said to have disclosed the fact that the Panama Canal virtually has nothing to fear from the fire of an enemy's fleet, so far as the Gatun locks are concerned. This information leaked from the Navy Department today. The tests are declared to have developed the fact that the fleet could not determine the location of the Gatun lock. It also is intimated that the data made public and supposed to give the topography of the Canal were purposely inaccurate. In addition, it was discovered that the hills intervening rendered the locks almost impervious from damage by bombardment from sea. Extension of the breakwater on the Atlantic side has made it possible to mount long-range guns so far that the approach of an enemy fleet could readily be checked. Embankments also for the mining of the approaches to the Canal on both sides already have been completed.

The tests were made by the third division of the Atlantic battleship fleet, in command of Rear Admiral Nathaniel B. Usher, in conjunction with the Coast Artillery and engineer officers of the Canal Commission. They were begun last winter when the battleship division touched at Colon. In accordance with an agreement between Rear Admiral Usher and Colonel George W. Goethals, chairman of the Commission, the battleships steamed over a course just out of the estimated range of the Coast Artillery forts at the Cristobal entrance to the canal in an effort to trace the locks at Gatun.

The data which was obtained by the naval observers with the aid of marine glasses was forwarded to the Joint Army and Navy Board here, which referred the navy report to Colonel Goethals and the Coast Artillery.

The Navy Department the torpedo boat destroyers Monaghan, Perry and Sterrett left last night for Charleston, S. C., for reserve duty at that station. Under previous arrangements the destroyers were not expected to start for Charleston until next Friday. To accompany these three as far as Delaware Breakwater the destroyers Roe and Perkins, bound for Philadelphia also haltered last night. All the spare men of the crews of the Charleston-bound boats will be sent to the Philadelphia yard to man new destroyers there.

The Lizard, Eng., Oct. 30.—The crew of the American schooner Little Beard were landed here today from the British tank steamship Sylvia. C. Kendall of the Little Beard and men abandoned their vessel on 16.

Capt. Prouse of the Sylvia, Port Arthur, Tex., Oct. 8 for Sheerness, Eng., picked up the shipwrecked crew, who had been compelled to abandon the Little Beard while that vessel was making the voyage from New York to Augusta, Me.

The Little Beard was built at Falmouth, Mass., in 1888. She has been New Bedford and was owned O. D. Kendall. Her displacement 268 tons.

is causing unscrupulous persons to wrap rank imitations that are not even real chewing gum so they resemble genuine WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT. The better class of stores will not try to fool you with these imitations. They will be offered to you principally by street fakirs, peddlers and the candy departments of some 5 and 10 cent stores. These rank imitations cost dealers one cent a package or even less and are sold to careless people for almost any price.

OLIVER W. BRANCH NAMED FOR THE SUPERIOR COURT

Concord, Oct. 30.—After a two day session the governor and council this afternoon made public the announcement that they had confirmed the appointment of Judge Robert G. Pike of Dover as chief Justice of the superior court, and that Oliver Winslow Branch of Manchester had been nominated by the governor as one of the judges of the superior court, which was caused by the vacancy due to the resignation of Chief Justice Robert M. Wallace of Milford, who retired recently owing to ill health.

The appointment of Mr. Branch does not come as a surprise for the reason, it has already been stated, that he had been agreed upon and that it was only a question of time when he would be named.

Oliver Winslow Branch is one of Manchester's rising young attorneys. He has been the junior member of the firm of Branch & Branch for a number of years and is regarded as a very capable young man by those who are legally associated with him in the courts.

He was born Oct. 4, 1878, and is therefore 34 years of age. He will enjoy the distinction of being the youngest man who ever sat on the bench of either the superior or supreme court in New Hampshire. He is a graduate of the Manchester high school, Phillips' Andover academy and the Harvard Law school.

HONOR AMERICAN PILOTS

New York, Oct. 30.—Ralph H. Upson, pilot of the balloons that won the international race in Europe early this month, was honored by the Aero Club of America yesterday by receiving the club gold medal. His advocate, Ralph A. D. Preston, was awarded the aviation medal of merit, as were also Harry E. Honeywell and J. H. Wade, Jr., pilot and aide of the American balloon that won second prize. These tokens will be presented at the annual Aero Club dinner in February. Cortland Field Bishop urged that America begin immediate preparation for the next international balloon race which will be held in this country, in order to attract pilots from other countries, he said, we must immediately draw up a complete programme, showing what we are willing to do for the contestants in the way of prizes.

Respecting the Uniform.

Every little while a great deal of attention is called in the press to a case of discrimination against an army or navy uniform. Sometimes a sailor is refused permission to enter a theatre, at another time one is ejected from a restaurant, and again the uniform is publicly insulted in some other manner. In a Boston subway a young girl who was standing waiting for a car with her brother, a sailor in uniform, was approached by a well meaning policeman and advised to go home to her mother. All of these instances show avoidable insult to the uniforms of army or navy, and are a source of mortification to the better class of young men wearing these uniforms as well as tending to keep some away from enlisting in the service of their country. It is to be regretted, of course, that thoughtless individuals have occasionally brought discredit in a measure upon all who wear the national uniforms, but their actions should not be made the basis for acts that will bring confusion to the greater number or insult to the uniform itself. All patriotic people will rejoice that a bill which forbids discrimination in a public hall against anyone who wears the dress of the army or navy, is about to be introduced in congress. It has received the sanction of the war department and if found constitutional it will receive the sanction of all real Americans. We are all apt to feel elated about the gallant men who are ready to defend the flag by land and sea in times of trouble, but our admiration should be practical in times of peace. There are thousands of soldiers and sailors who are deserving of courteous treatment as civilians and they do not lose caste because of wearing an honorable uniform but are rendered still more deserving of respect for what they represent. It is well that the law should be more specific about the respect due to our uniforms while there are individuals so forgetful of their plain duty as to discriminate against them.—Lowell Sun.

Accurate Reporting.

The public sometimes laughs at the smaller newspapers as collections of curbside gossip, and looks with a certain awe at great metropolitan journals of a hundred thousand circulation as institutions dealing with great national issues on which a high standard of accuracy and truth telling is required. In actual practice the situation is reversed. The smaller papers, those that are close to a small city or village constituency, are held down very rigidly to high standards of accurate reporting. If some one's initial is printed wrong, they will hear about it next day. The most offhand remark is often accepted as containing deep and poisonous innuendo. On the other hand, even the best of the metropolitan papers print news on mere hearsay, affecting the most important and delicate interests of business and government.—Lawrence Sun.

Times May Mend.

It sends a shiver down the backs of holders of Boston & Maine stock to hear the mention of a receivership for the big corporation. But there is as yet nothing to show that such a step is at all likely to come. When it comes to the pinch it is much more probable that the road will be allowed to advance its rates and to borrow more money. The situation of both this road and the New Haven is far below what it ought to be. But each of the roads is in a very productive district and there is no good reason why a road honestly and ably administered cannot make good dividends after rendering low-priced and timely service.—Fitchburg Sentinel.

Will Be a Relief Anyway.

The Massachusetts state election takes place next Tuesday and no matter who is the successful gubernatorial candidate, it is safe to say that the majority of the citizens of the Bay state will feel relieved in not having to read or listen to any more of the charges or counter charges of the several aspirants for office.

How to Obtain Publicity.

Many papers of late are having considerable to say about the awful cost of printing the mail order catalogs mail order houses send to everyone so freely. Nothing is so cheap today as printing, and advertising is the cheapest means of publicity. Let the people know it when you have something to sell, is the idea. Mail order houses do that.

Important Prediction Overlooked.

The farmers' almanacs for 1914 have been issued, but a careful perusal does not throw any light as to whether Harry Thaw will pass the year in this state or New York. All indications at the present time point to his eating his Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners in this state.

General Carter, U. S. A., as Air Scout; He Commands Troops on Border.

Uncle Sam was ready for a flight or a frolic on the Mexican border when President Wilson prepared his new note to the powers of the world announcing the latest attitude of the United States toward the stricken Mexican situation. Thousands of soldiers were in camp at Texas City, Tex., and at Galveston, Tex., Brigadier General Carter, in command of the troops at the former camp, is shown here in one of the mounting aeroplanes used in patrolling the border. He is at the left, with Lieut. Frank Milling, one of the army aviators. General Carter knows how to handle an air craft himself.

THAW DODGES JEROME OFFER

Will Not Bite at "Immunity from Matteawan" Bait, Says His Attorneys.

Concord, Oct. 30.—Merrill Bluntell and Ex-Governor Stone have the brief opposing Thaw's extradition which they are to present to Governor Folger nearly completed and it will be ready for filing with the governor and with Jerome by Saturday or at the latest Monday. It is understood that they will not ask for a hearing, as that they desire to state will be included in the brief.

Thaw has decided that he will not return to New York state notwithstanding any promises that Jerome might make in granting his immunity from Matteawan. The attorney general of the state of New York would demand that he stand trial upon the indictment, and then before Thaw would have a chance to plead he would be examined by attorneys probably and would be placed in Matteawan on account of an alleged mental condition, his attorneys state.

AT SEABROOK.

Seaside District Sunday School Association Will Convene on Nov. 4.

The annual convention of the Seaside District Sunday school association will be held at the Baptist church in Seabrook on Tuesday, Nov. 4, with meetings at 10 and 1:30. This district is composed of the Sunday schools in Hampton, Hampton Falls, Seabrook and North Hampton, and each school is requested to send one delegate, aside from the superintendent and pastor of the church. The programme will include: Devotional services and welcome, Rev. Edward Seabrook, local pastor; response, Rev. C. E. Clough, president; homilies and reports from all the schools in the districts; "Our Home Department," Mrs. M. B. Lockett; "Our Deafness Department," Mrs. C. E. Clough; paper, "The Sunday School Place of Power and Influence in the World," Rev. J. F. Congdon, pastor of Advent Christian church, of Hampton; address, "Sunday School Work with the Boys," Rev. J. S. Strong, pastor Congregational church, Hampton; closing remarks, Mrs. Nellie T. Hendrick, general secretary, New Hampshire Sunday School association. Afternoon features will be: Devotional service, Rev. Mr. Smith, pastor Baptist church, Hampton; unfinished business, music; address, Mrs. Nellie T. Hendrick; "The Teacher Evangelist," Rev. G. H. Laflue, pastor Congregational church, North Hampton; closing praise and prayer service.

STILL REMAINS A MYSTERY

York Officials Still Unable to Connect Anyone With Infanticide Case.

There are no new developments in the York infanticide case according to Deputy Sheriff Woodward and other officials who have been working on the case.

The officers have worked on the case but so far they have not reported any success. It is known however, that several valuable clues have been turned up, and something may develop in the course of a week or so.

Efforts to prove the ownership of the clothing left about the dead infant have failed thus far. The waitress apron had a mark on it that may prove valuable in the final summing up of the case, while a handkerchief is also another valuable piece of evidence. This was found near the spot where the body lay, and one side of the handkerchief had been torn out evidently to destroy the mark upon it.

Out of town police have been asked to look up certain facts in regard to statements made in connection with the case, and up to date, no report has come from them. Whether the case may shift to other scenes the next few days will tell.

There are some valuable clues to be found, goes without saying. The greatest difficulty however is in getting people to talk. The fear that they may be connected as a witness no doubt has a tendency to seal lips that otherwise might be able to give the officers a starting point. This attitude is entirely wrong; every bit of help in clearing up the mystery should be given. Much of course, might prove invaluable, but some might prove the very thing that is needed to connect up some of the missing links.

The work on the case will not cease. Although it may be weeks before anything of real value may be found, it will come sooner or later.

Male Nurses Testify to Fact in Worcester State Hospital Investigation.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 30.—Male nurses gave testimony before the state board of insanity this afternoon in the investigation of charges concerning conditions at Worcester State hospital. Speaking of male attendants and habits, James McMichael said he would say that drinking is a common complaint with them. He and another witness ascribed this as a cause for many getting through.

How Nelsace Giroux was beaten by an attendant, it is alleged, and how the suspected person left the hospital the next day, was told by Norman Cates, a nurse. He said the case was reported to Dr. Scribner. Dr. Scribner said he notified the police and they did not think there was sufficient evidence to warrant an arrest, although he was convinced of the guilt of the attendant.

Criticise Quality of Food.

Miss Mary Bryant completed the testimony of the female nurses in the course of that offered by Dr. Scribner to refute charges. He called seven male attendants. Many of the female attendants said they objected to the quality of food and without exception declared they were underpaid. Some of them said the food is much better now.

When the hearing is resumed tomorrow forenoon at 11 Dr. G. W. Galvin, representing the signers of the original petition, will put on witnesses who he claims have things to tell in substantiation of charges made.

Mr. and Mrs. William Naylor of Portland, formerly residents at the Intervene, were in town on Thursday renewing acquaintances. Mr. Naylor, it will be recalled, recently had several thousand volts of electricity pass through his body while at his work. He was badly burned about the arms.

Hospital Steward Robert Stanley of Dame street left today for Washington, D. C., in charge of an insane marine for the naval asylum there.

Mrs. Charles Craig of Eliot was in town today, a visitor at her former home at Locke's Cove.

Mr. Willard Goodwin and son of York spent Thursday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones of Kittery Depot on Thursday afternoon and evening entertained the Ladies' Aid of the Second M. E. church. The afternoon was given over to the ladies who industriously served for their coming big fair on Dec. 1, and at supper time, after the gentlemen had arrived, a picnic lunch was served, and then a grand time for all followed.

Miss Hattie Flint of Locke's Cove has returned from a few days' visit with friends in Eliot.

The work of extending the Kittery water works to Eliot is being rapidly pushed.

Tonight is Hallowe'en. Look out that you don't lose your gates, or any loose articles lying around, for the youngsters will be out in full force.

(Augusta Courier in the New York Times.)

On Saturday at breakfast time,

You'll hear, Miss Gladys say:

"Now mother, you and Bridget

Must have a holiday;

So don't come near the kitchen,

But rest for pity's sake,

While I do all your duties

And make the Sunday cake.

Then a pack of sugar,

Across the spotless floor,

And, ah, the jelly smudges,

On the handle of the door;

Lo, the citron, spice and raisins

And the coquelin so pink

Are daubed on chairs and tables

And even in the sink!

Eleven cups are needed.

To separate the eggs;

And corrupt old Bridget

Is run clean off her legs;

For she must melt the butter,

And she must mix the dough,

While Gladys grates the chocolate

And smears it high and low

Alas! the devastation

In that kitchen primo and clean!

A stack of sticky silver,

And utensils seventeen!

"Please mother, can't you finish up?"

Miss Gladys then will say,

I'd quite forgot I'd promised

To attend the matinee.

MR. LANGDON'S GENEROUS OFFER TABLED BY COUNCIL

Refuse to Take Action at This Time
--Firemen Get an Extra Day Off
--Other Business.

Optable of giving the permanent firemen one more day off a month and laying the offer of Hon. Woodbury Langdon of $5,000 to beautify the South Pond on the table, the City Council did but little business on Thursday evening, finishing up instead of an hour and getting away from the building.

Mayor Badger presided and during the reading of the petition, Councilman Tilton asked why this was done every meeting when this work remained for had already been done. Mayor Badger agreed with him, declaring that it was a favor by the Board of Public Works had the supervisory power over the work and were given a copy of the petition. Councilman Tilton asked how were they to know that when a petition was received to repair a drain that connections were not made with sewers and the city losing out. It was explained that this was up to the Board of Public Works to supervise such work.

The petition of S. S. Trueman to lay a drain to the Elliot Home was questioned by Councilman Cox who thought that it was queer that rock had to be blasted out to repair a drain. It was explained that the drain was simply being relaid into the Pleasant street sewer and straightened out and lowered made necessary by lowering the cellar of the Home.

A petition of the residents of Peverly Hill road to have electric lights was referred to the committee on street lights.

A petition for license to operate two pool tables in his cigar store was received from T. L. Dolan on Congress street and on motion of Councilman Adams it was referred to a committee of three consisting of Councilmen Adams, Tilton and Cox, appointed by the Mayor.

The Finance Committee offered a resolution authorizing the Mayor to draw a warrant for $200 in settlement of the claim of William H. Tucker against the city.

Councilman Cox offered an amendment in chapter 40 of the city ordinances regarding the fire department which will give the permanent firemen three days off a month instead of two. Councilman Duncan of the committee on Fire Department, explaining that it would not add any more expense to the department on motion of Mr. Cox the amendment was passed under a suspension of the rules and the men will hereafter take three days a month off, the days to be designated by Chief Woods.

Mr. Langdon's Generous Offer Tabled.

Councilman Philham offered a resolution in which it was stated that Hon. Woodbury Langdon had offered the city $5,000 in addition to $6,000 already given a year ago to clear up and beautify the South Pond, on the away from home and when the officer found her she was in a bay mare ring. At the station it was necessary to place her in a padded cell and today she will be taken to the state hospital at Concord.

WEDDING PRESENT FOR MISS WILSON CAUSES DISCUSSION

Washington, Oct. 30.—Republican Leader Mann's plan for 85 subscriptions from Congressmen to a wedding gift for Miss Jessie Wilson was discussed in the House today by Representative Gray, Democrat, of Indiana, who said the movement was "a exceeding bad taste."

Representative Adams objected to the passage of the bill on the ground that he had not had time to consider the matter. Councilman Bennett was unwilling that it should pass for there was a question in his mind if $20,000 the total sum available providing the city accepted the offer of Mr. Langdon, would be enough to do the work.

Mayor Badger stated that Mr. Langdon's gift was for the purpose of cleaning out the pond, and filing in to land recently purchased for the army site and in this way beautifying the entire play ground system.

Councilman Adams said there was no ordinance which would permit the digging out of the pond, and added to have the matter referred to the Finance committee, of which he is a member. This was finally done.

Councilman Philham offered an amendment to the city ordinances fixing the salaries of the members of the police commission at $75.00 a year and the clerk at $150. Councilman Adams objected on the ground that the Mayor's veto of the last resolution was not acted upon and voted to have it tabled. This was done and later when Mr. Philham asked to have action on the Mayor's veto there was nothing doing.

The Shaking Fund Commission was authorized to subscribe to the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad per car convertible bonds about to be issued and it was granted.

The Commission also offered a resolution that they be authorized to sell and transfer the 337 rights of the city in the N. Y. N. & H. R.R. in connection with the bond issue and this was passed.

The Council adjourned to Nov. 13.

POLICE NEWS

There were five "runts," one for non-support, four lodgers and a delinquent woman in the police blotter on Thursday evening.

The non-support case is that of a man who deserted his wife and two children and who came back on Thursday and announced his intention of leaving town. He was promptly arrested on a warrant charging non-support and will be arraigned in justice court today. Under the new law this is a felony which must be dealt with by the upper court. During his absence the family have been taken care of by the county.

A delinquent woman was found in a barn on the Lafayette road on Thursday evening by Officer Kelley, who was sent out after her. She resides on Hill street and had resided

OUR STATE LEADS OTHERS

Returns More Than Twice the Amount Collected by Maine and Vermont.

For nearly ten months a controversy has existed between the states of New Hampshire and Maine over the office of internal revenue collector, which is at the disposal of the national democratic administration, their officials of both states endeavoring to pluck the plum for some vestige of their respective commonwealths. The office is one, as is well known, which has been accorded to New Hampshire, regardless of whether the administration was republican or democratic, from time immemorial, and New Hampshire men of affairs cannot understand why Maine should be an aspirant on any other ground than that she is seeking to get all she can.

On the basis of internal revenue returns this receipts from New Hampshire are materially in excess of those contributed by both Maine and Vermont, and the latter state contributes more than Maine.

From information obtained from official sources it is shown that for the year ending June 30, 1912, New Hampshire paid over to the government $173,449.14, while Vermont's contribution was but $77,750.60, and Maine turned in the comparative small sum of $22,785.57. The city of Portsmouth alone, because of its large brewing interests, contributed $250,000, in round numbers, a sum vastly greater than the entire states of Maine and Vermont. With such a showing as this, it is claimed by New Hampshire men of affairs that neither Maine nor Vermont may have any just claim upon the office of internal revenue collector.

BUSCH FAMILY TO HAVE HANDY INCOME

St. Louis, Oct. 30.—Each of the heirs of the estate of Adolphus Busch who according to the will filed here late yesterday are to have shares of the trust into which the estate is to be formed, will have an annual income of $975,000 a share, or more than $1000 a day by a high officer of the Busch corporations. According to this officer, the income of the estate is estimated at $3,000,000, which is a 10 per cent return on a valuation of $50,000,000.

The heirs are the widow and the seven children.

The fact that a codicil was attached little more than a year ago, exempting Lieut. Edward Scherer, the husband of Wilhelmine Busch, from a fourth interest in his wife's share of the estate should she die before him, was explained today by a member of the family.

The codicil was added, it was stated, not because Adolphus Busch represented the marriage of his daughter to the German Lieutenant, but because the laws of Germany provide that husband and wife shall share equally in any estate either shall inherit, and that the original provision giving Scherer a fourth interest should he survive his wife would be invalid in Germany.

The three executors, Mrs. Lilly Busch, Edward A. Frost and Charles Nagel, will have full power to make the $210,000 in charitable bequests and the personal bequests amounting to $20,000, and to provide an income for the widow not exceeding $50,000 a day.

The son, August A. Busch, who succeeds his father in the management of the vast properties, is to have two shares of the trust and his income consequently will be $160,000 a year, minus the provision he is required to make for his invalid brother Carl.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

A happy party spent the evening and a mucky portion of the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford, 129 State street, last evening, and indulged in many of the pranks in keeping with the season of witches and black cats. An hour was spent in whist, with appropriate prizes and favors, after which sociability reigned supreme with mirth and merriment. At some late hour in the evening the hosts invited all to assemble in the beautifully decorated dining room and partake of the many delicious chowds tastily arranged amid autumn leaves and crepe paper trimmings. Yes, it was at a late hour, and they none, when the guests departed for their homes, thanking the hosts for the pleasant entertainment afforded to them during the evening.

TONIGHT'S WRESTLING-BOUT.

Joe Gerardi, the Italian Bear Cat, who meets Jim Thorpe in this city to-night, is probably the most aggressive middleweight in the game. One of his most notable feats was his throwing John Westergard in Mechanics Hall, Boston, twice in 28 minutes. Gerardi was referred to meet Yung Zhouku last year at the great professional athletic meet in Mechanics Hall, at the time Jim Thorpe made his final athletic appearance. Gerardi won the bout in straight falls. He comes here directly from Schenectady, N. Y., where he wrestled Wednesday night.

SONG—I Never Heard.

Miss Grace Maxfield.

MIDDLE STREET CHURCH ROLL CALL

Members Listen to Stirring Address by Rev. James Francis of Boston.

The annual roll call service of the Middle street Baptist church was held in the chapel Thursday evening.

Previous to the service the members of the church, their husbands and wives, par took of a bountiful supper, served in the main chapel and adjoining rooms, under the direction of Charles Clough.

During the informal social session which followed tables were removed, and after a brief devotional service, led by the pastor, Rev. Wiliam Stanley, the roll of the church was called, nearly every active member responding to his name.

A few members were present from out of town, and responses were received from others which were read.

After the roll call service a stirring address was given by Rev. James A. Francis,

D. D. pastor of the Clarendon Street

Baptist church of Boston, upon "What is a church for?" Dr. Francis did the close attention of his audience.

After prayer by Rev. Arnold Natin,

the service was closed, all agreeing it to be one of the pleasantest occasions of the church year.

Mr. Charles Clough was general chairman of arrangements, Mrs. Samuel W. Moses, chairman of the reception committee. The waitresses were members of Mrs. Sides large class of girls.
